Greenberg Advisors Celebrates Its 5 Year Anniversary

WASHINGTON, DC – August 20, 2014 – Greenberg Advisors, LLC (GA), a global boutique investment bank, is pleased to announce its fifth anniversary. Specializing in advising clients in the Accounts Receivable Management (ARM), Revenue Cycle Management (RCM), Business Process Outsourcing (BPO), and Specialty Finance sectors, the firm has built a reputation for consistent results.

Since its founding in early 2009, GA's professionals have advised dozens of clients in making sound decisions when considering selling or acquiring a company, securing reasonably priced capital, understanding valuation, and gaining a comprehensive perspective of the market and its opportunities.

Among the noteworthy deals completed by GA in the past five years:

- » Created a top 10 company within 8 months of engagement
- » Sold the Panamanian subsidiary of a US-based firm
- » Advised a large strategic in its entry via acquisition into the US market
- » Secured bank financing for a debt buyer/servicer reducing their cost of capital by 72%
- » Divested a wholly-owned subsidiary for a corporate parent/financial services company
- » Advised a private equity firm in acquiring one of the largest legal collection networks in the US

“We are fortunate to have worked with so many outstanding clients, including private equity firms, family-run and privately-held businesses, and management teams,” said Brian Greenberg, CEO of GA. “I believe our success stems from the fact that we always do what’s right for our clients and we’re highly motivated to exceed their expectations. We simply want to ‘win’ on behalf of each client, every day.”

“We expect that in the coming years, our clients will encounter many more opportunities and challenges. We’ll continue to make sure we’re always expanding our reach, our resources, and our ability to help them achieve their goals,” continued Greenberg.
